LEMON WAY reserves the right to request any other document or additional information that may be required to carry out the necessary checks and ensure compliance with legal obligations, including those involving anti-money laundering.

The Account Holder accepts that the Partner Website may be used to send these documents to LEMON WAY by email (emails sent to justificatif@lemonway.com), by digital transmission and upload onto LEMON WAY's computer systems, or by post to the address of the headquarters indicated on the first page.

However, if the Account Holder is acting on behalf of a business, they may accept the Framework Agreement by any other means. In such a case, the Account Holder must have carefully read, understood and accepted the Framework Agreement in its entirety.

3.4 - Acceptance/refusal to open a Payment Account

The required identification documents shall be those of the legal representative who has given his or her express and written authorisation.

The Partner Website may inform the Account Holder by email of LEMON WAY's acceptance or refusal to open their Payment Account. As soon as their request to open a Payment Account has been accepted, the Account Holder will be able to log into the Partner's Website to check that their Payment Account is open.

4- CREDITING A PAYMENT ACCOUNT

4.1 - By cheque, bank transfer or card

Regarding the supply of money by endorsed checks into the Payment Account, we hereby inform the Account Holder that the aforementioned endorsed checks are processed by a subcontractor.

As soon as the account has been opened in their name by a third party payment services provider, the Account Holder may begin paying money into its Payment Account by bank transfer, endorsed checks made payable to LEMON WAY or by bank card, with a view to transferring the funds by credit transfer to the Payment Account of another Account Holder. These two payment Transactions are considered indissociable.

LEMON WAY may refuse to register a bank card or payment card or may, at any time, cancel the backup of such information as a security measure. In this case, the Account Holder must enter their bank card or payment card details each time they wish to pay money into their Account.

In order to protect the Account Holder, LEMON WAY sets credit ceilings, which may be more restrictive than the Account Holder's ceilings. LEMON WAY sets single ceilings per day, per month and per year, as well as all forms of restriction necessary to prevent fraud.

The Account Holder is hereby informed that any payment Transaction that is likely to surpass the ceilings applied will be automatically rejected by LEMON WAY.

For any Transaction made by bank or payment card that may entail an outstanding, rejected or blocked payment, LEMON WAY will automatically deduct the corresponding amount from the net balance of the Payment Account. If the net balance does not contain sufficient funds, LEMON WAY is authorised to use all necessary means against the Account Holder in order to recover the outstanding amount. Furthermore, LEMON WAY is entitled to refuse to carry out all future remittances made using the card that gave rise to the incident.

In addition, LEMON WAY will debit the Account Holder's Payment Account for rejected payment Transactions and other penalties that may be imposed by VISA or MASTERCARD.

4.2 - Deadline for registering funds on the Account

LEMON WAY will register the funds resulting from the acquisition of a payment Order by card or credit transfer as soon as possible, and no later than by the end of the working day they were received by LEMON WAY, in accordance with article 4.1.

5- DEBITING A PAYMENT ACCOUNT BY TRANSFER

5.1 - Initiating a payment Order

LEMON WAY provides a payment service that enables Account Holders with a Payment Account to instruct LEMON WAY to carry out a transfer, on the condition that the Account Provision is greater than the total transfer amount (fees included). In the event that the Provision is insufficient, the payment Order will be automatically refused.

The available Provision corresponds to the net balance of the Payment Account, excluding the blocked Provision and outstanding Transactions. The blocked Provision amount is determined by LEMON WAY in order to cover possible chargebacks arising from a stop payment Order. Such a stop payment order may take effect within 13 months of the debit being made on the Account.

The payment Order must include the following information:

- The amount in euros (€)

- The surname and forename of the Beneficiary;
- The number of the account opened with the Beneficiary's payment services provider.

The Account Holder recognises that the currency of its Payment Account is different to that of the Beneficiary's account, into which it is transferring the funds. As such, currency exchange charges will be deducted by the Beneficiary's payment services provider. The Partner and the Beneficiary's payment service provider are responsible for informing the Beneficiary of the fees and execution times before any acquisitions of Orders involving currency exchange charges are carried out. The Partner must communicate this information to the payer Account Holder

LEMON WAY shall not be held liable if the bank details sent for transfer requests are incorrect or not up to date.

5.2 - Irrevocability of a payment Order

In accordance with article 5.1, a payment Order effectively issued by an Account Holder is irrevocable once the single-use code has been entered, after which the Account Holder cannot request its cancellation.

It is hereby specified that the Account Holder may initiate a batch Order, including a transfer of funds by card (initiated in compliance with article 4.1 above) and a payment Order by transfer to the Payment Account of the Beneficiary selected on a given date. As explained in article 4.1, the payment Order will be deemed irrevocable as soon as the card details have been entered.

5.3 - Applicable ceiling amounts and limits

The Account Holder is subject to the following standard ceilings:

- If the Account Holder is a private individual, they are hereby informed that a ceiling of €2,500 euros may per calendar year and €250 per expenditure may be applied. In order to use their Payment Account for amounts exceeding these ceilings, LEMON WAY will ask the Account Holder to provide additional identification documents.
- If the Account Holder is a legal person, LEMON WAY will automatically request all the identification documents required prior to opening their Payment Account.

Any payment Transaction that risks exceeding the ceilings applied to the monthly accumulated payment amount will be automatically rejected by LEMON WAY.

In the event of a risk of fraud, LEMON WAY may, at any time, activate other ceilings or blocks applied to Orders.

LEMON WAY reserves the rights to reverse a payment Transaction if the transfer of funds made by bank or payment card for the purposes of crediting the Payment Account is rejected or cancelled by the card issuer.

5.4 - Execution times

In accordance with the decree of 29 July 2009 and under article L.314-2 of the Monetary and Financial code, the maximum execution times for payment services are as follows:

- If it is made out in euros and intended for a credit institution located in a European Union member state, a payment Transaction initiated on a given working day will be executed by LEMON WAY no later than the following working day;
- If it is made out in euros and intended for another Payment Account, a payment Transaction initiated on a given working day will be executed by LEMON WAY no later than said working day.

6- REPORTING

6.1 - By transaction

When a payment Transaction is carried out, LEMON WAY or the Partner Website automatically sends a Transaction confirmation email to the Account Holder who initiated the payment Order. This email contains all information relating to the payment Transaction that was communicated to LEMON WAY, such as: the Beneficiary's identity, the payment Transaction description, amount, date and time, as well as the applicable payment conditions.

6.2 - Account statements

All payment Transactions are displayed within an account statement, which is updated in real time for each Payment Account. The Account Holder may consult their account statement through the Partner Website.

The Account Holder will have access to the Payment Account statements, displaying all registered incoming and outgoing payment Transactions for this Account.

The consultation period lasts for two (2) years, in addition to the current year. LEMON WAY will keep all records and documents relating to the payment Transactions carried out on an electronic archiving medium for the statutory time limits.

7- CONTRACT DURATION AND DATE OF EFFECT

The Framework Agreement comes into effect for an indefinite period as soon as the Account Holder has accepted these terms and conditions.

If the Account Holder is a natural person or meets the requirements of article D 341-1 of the Monetary and Financial Code for legal entities, they have fourteen (14) calendar days to withdraw from the Framework Agreement, free of charge. This short time frame starts the day the Framework Agreement is concluded, that is to say the day the Account Holder accepts these General Terms and Conditions. Within this withdrawal window, the fulfilment of the Framework Agreement cannot start unless expressly requested by the Account Holder. The Account Holder expressly acknowledges and accepts that any payment instruction they send to LEMON WAY prior to the expiration of this withdrawal window, constitutes an express request for the fulfilment of the Framework

Agreement. The Account Holder will therefore not be entitled to cancel any payment instructions they send and confirm during this withdrawal window.

The Account Holder may exercise their right to withdraw without penalty or need for justification.

The Account Holder must notify LEMON WAY of their decision to withdraw by sending a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt to LEMON WAY's headquarters before the end of the fourteen-day window. If the Account Holder does not exercise their right to withdraw, the contract shall be maintained in accordance with the provisions of these General Terms and Conditions. Beyond this point, in order to terminate the Framework Agreement, the Account Holder must follow the termination conditions specified in article 19-.

LEMON WAY will not accept complaints pertaining to relations between Account Holders or between an Account Holder and a third party. This article of the Framework Agreement only covers complaints pertaining to the lack of or poor execution of a payment Transaction carried out by LEMON WAY.

Complaints (disputes, right to opposition, access and rectification, etc.) may be made freely, upon request and addressed to LEMON WAY at the email address: reclamation@lemonway.com or by written letter to the following address:

9- FEES

In return for providing the Account Holder with payment Services, LEMON WAY will receive remuneration, the amount and conditions of which are indicated on the Partner's Website under the "PRICING CONDITIONS" tab. The prices indicated are final and include the Partner website's and LEMON WAY's commissions. They are not inclusive of tax.

Invoices, which are deducted from the Payment Account at the frequency indicated in the Pricing Conditions, are payable by the Account Holder in cash. If necessary, they will be deducted at the end of each month. The invoices are deemed to be net amounts and not inclusive of discounts.

The Account Holder is hereby informed that the processing fees for outstanding payments, rejections or oppositions may be deducted by LEMON WAY, but no more than €150, in accordance with article L.133-19 of the Monetary and Financial Code.

Failure to pay an invoice by the required date will incur a late payment interest equal to three times the (EONIA) legal interest rate. Interest payments are calculated pro rata temporis over the period of a month (each month that has begun to be paid in full) and are accrued at the end of each calendar year.

LEMON WAY may amend the prices in Appendix A, subject to sending any form of notification to the Partner. The amendment may take effect within two months of the notification being sent to the Partner. If the monthly fraud rate exceeds 0.2% in volume, LEMON WAY may immediately amend the prices by simple notification or by terminating this contract in accordance with article 19-.

10- SECURITY

10.1 - Notification obligation

It is the Account Holder's duty to immediately inform LEMON WAY of any suspected fraudulent access or use of their Payment Account or of any event that is likely to result in such a use, including but not limited to: loss, accidental disclosure or hacking of their Payment Account login details or a non-authorized transaction.

This notification must be sent by email to the following email address: fraude@lemonway.com and must be confirmed by written post to the following address:

LEMON WAY undertakes to make every effort to prevent any other use of the Payment Account. The Partner is also responsible for the use of its own secure means of communication with the Account Holder.

10.3 - Use of cookies

LEMON WAY hereby informs you that cookies (files sent by the LEMON WAY server and saved on the internet browser's computer hard drive) may be used within the framework of the payment Services. Above all, the purpose of these cookies is to improve the functioning, and particularly the speed, of the payment Service.

The Account Holder is hereby informed that they may refuse LEMON WAY's use of cookies by modifying its browser settings, however this may affect the quality of their use of the payment Services.

10.4 - Disruption to payment Services

LEMON WAY undertakes to implement all reasonable means available to provide a permanent service. However, LEMON WAY does not guarantee continuous, uninterrupted access to the payment Service. Consequently, LEMON WAY shall not be held liable for any delay and/or total or partial inaccessibility to the payment Services if such events are caused by factors beyond its reasonable control.

The Account Holder is hereby informed that LEMON WAY may occasionally interrupt access to all or part of the Services in order to carry out repairs, maintenance or improvements,

- in the event of a suspected hacking attempt, embezzlement or any other security risk,
- upon request or instructions from competent, qualified individuals or authorities.

LEMON WAY may not, under any circumstances, be held liable for damage caused as a result of this suspended service.

As soon as normal service is restored, LEMON WAY will implement all reasonable means to process all pending payment Transactions as quickly as possible.

LEMON WAY shall not be held liable for the consequences of an objection that was not filed by an Account Holder. An objection request is deemed to have been made on the date it was effectively received by LEMON WAY or any other person authorised by the latter for this purpose. In the event of theft or fraudulent use, LEMON WAY is authorised to request a receipt or copy of the filed complaint from the Account Holder, who undertakes to respond as quickly as possible.

LEMON WAY will block access to the Payment Account and will make the Account Holder's Payment Account login details inoperative. New login details will be sent to the Account Holder the same way they were sent the first time upon opening the Payment Account.

11- LIABILITY

In accordance with article L.133-22 of the Monetary and Financial Code, LEMON WAY is responsible, under articles L.133-5 and L.133-21 of said Code, for successfully executing payment Transactions for the payer Account Holder, until the funds are received by the Beneficiary's third party payment service provider. In the event that LEMON WAY is responsible for a poorly executed payment Transaction, it will return the amount in question to the payer and will restore the debited account to the situation that would have prevailed if said poorly executed payment Transaction had not taken place.

In accordance with article 8-, if an Account Holder, acting for non-professional purposes, wishes to dispute a payment Transaction that they have not personally authorised, they must contact customer services as soon as possible after learning of the irregularity and no later than thirteen (13) months after such a transaction is registered within the payment Transaction Account. In the event that a security measure is used, non-authorised payment Transactions executed prior to notification of the objection are deemed the responsibility of the Account Holder acting for non-professional purposes, up to a limit of €150. However, LEMON WAY shall not be held liable in case of Account Holder misconduct, such as a wilful misconduct, or constituent of a serious failure to meet its obligations, a late communication of an objection or bad faith. In the event of a misappropriation or counterfeiting of its data, the losses resulting from payment Transactions processed prior to objection by the Account Holder acting for non-professional purposes will be borne by LEMON WAY, unless such losses are a result of the aforementioned misconduct. Payment Transactions carried out after objection by the Account Holder acting for non-professional purposes are borne by LEMON WAY, except for cases of fraud.

LEMON WAY does not have the right to cancel an irrevocable payment Order on the Account Holder's request.

LEMON WAY shall not, under any circumstances, be held liable for indirect damages, such as commercial harm, loss of customers, commercial disruption, loss of profit or damage to brand image suffered by an Account Holder or third party, that may have resulted from the payment Services it provides. Any action brought against an Account Holder by a third party is treated as indirect damage and therefore does not entitle the former to compensation.

Unless otherwise stipulated in these General Terms and Conditions or mandatory laws, and without causing prejudice to other grounds for excluding or limiting responsibility defined by this contract, LEMON WAY may not, under any circumstances, be held responsible for any damage caused by a force majeure event or event beyond its control or any measure or legislative provision enforced by the French or foreign authorities. In the event of the death of the Account Holder, LEMON WAY must be notified as soon as possible by the rightful beneficiaries or their authorised representative. If such notice is given verbally, it must be confirmed in writing. Upon receipt of this written confirmation, LEMON WAY will ensure that no further payment Transactions are executed and will proceed with the closure of the Account.

If the Provision held by LEMON WAY in the deceased's name is greater than the fees required to cover withdrawal costs, the rightful beneficiaries may receive a reimbursement if they or their authorised representative are able to produce documentary evidence that, according to applicable law, establishes the devolution of the inheritance, as well as any other documents that LEMON WAY may deem necessary.

If no such transfer is made, for whatever reason, including the failure to provide LEMON WAY with supporting documents, the provisions of article 13.2 of this contract will be applied to the Provision.

13.2 Inactive account

A Payment Account is deemed inactive if:

- the Payment Account has not processed any payment Transactions, excluding deductions made by LEMON WAY for fees and commissions of all kinds, for twelve (12) months, during which
- the Account Holder, legal representative or person authorised by them to act on their behalf has not presented themselves to LEMON WAY, in any way, shape or form, or
- within the twelve (12) months following Account Holder's death. The Account Holder and its rightful beneficiaries are hereby informed of the consequences of such an event.

The assets registered on the inactive Payment Account are deposited in the Caisse des Dépôts et Consignations (Deposits and Consignments Fund) after a period of ten (10) years, starting from the date of the last payment Transaction, excluding amounts debited by LEMON WAY, such as fees and commissions of all kinds; except in the case of the Account Holder's death, in which the assets registered on the inactive payment Account are deposited in the Caisse des Dépôts et Consignations after a period of three (3) years following the Account Holder's death.

The Account Holder will be notified of LEMON WAY's acceptance by any means possible. It stops automatically after the Account Holder's death. This mandate may be revoked on the initiative of the Account Holder, who will inform the authorised representative and LEMON WAY as such by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt. The termination takes effect on the date that LEMON WAY receives the above-mentioned letter. Until said date, the Account Holder remains responsible for payment Transactions initiated on its behalf by the designated authorised representative.

The Account Holder expressly relieves LEMON WAY of professional secrecy with regard to the Payment Account data that may pertain to the authorised representative appointed by the mandate.

This duty of confidentiality will remain in effect for the duration of the Account Holder's subscription to the payment Service and for the three (3) years following the termination of the Framework Agreement. This duty of confidentiality does not apply to information that is or may become available to the public through no fault of the Account Holder.

The Parties understand that payment Transactions are covered by professional secrecy, pursuant to article L.519-22 of the Monetary and Financial Code.

17- AGREEMENT ON PROOF

The Account Holder and LEMON WAY both consider communications made by email as valid forms of proof.

All information saved in LEMON WAY's computer databases regarding payment Orders and Transactions have, until proven otherwise, the same probative value as a hand-signed paper copy, both in terms of their content and the date and time they were produced and/or received. These unalterable, secure and reliable traces are embedded and saved within LEMON WAY's computer systems.

Documents held by LEMON WAY that replicate this information, as well as copies or reproductions of documents produced by LEMON WAY, have the same probative value as the originals, unless proven otherwise.

18- ACCOUNT SUSPENSION

LEMON WAY may pronounce the temporary and immediate suspension of a Payment Account for any reason, particularly:

- if the Account Holder has not met the provisions of the Framework Agreement,
- if the Account Holder has provided LEMON WAY with inaccurate, expired or incomplete identification information,
- in the event of a risk of fraud, money laundering or financing of terrorism or a risk that may affect the Payment Account's security,
- in case of a significantly heightened risk regarding the Account Holder's inability to fulfil its payment obligations,
- in the event that LEMON WAY receives a significant number of repayments or payment Order cancellations or disputes against non-authorised Orders.

This decision shall be justified and notified to the Account Holder by any means possible. The purpose of suspending a payment Account is to protect the Account Holder and may not, under any circumstances, result in the payment of damages to the latter.

The payment Account will be reactivated at LEMON WAY's discretion.

Depending on the seriousness of the failure to comply with the Framework Agreement, and particularly if the Beneficiary has sold illegal products, LEMON WAY reserves the right to terminate the Framework Agreement in compliance with the provisions of article 19.

19- TERMINATION OF THE FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT

The Account Holder may automatically terminate the Framework Agreement, which will result in the closure of their Payment Account, by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, following compliance with a month's notice. They must maintain a sufficient Provision in order to ensure the completion of pending payment Transactions, until they have been resolved, and all outstanding fees have been paid.

LEMON WAY may automatically terminate the Framework Agreement, which will result in the closure of their Payment Account, by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, following compliance with a month's notice.

In the event of gross negligence by one of the Parties, the Framework Agreement may be terminated with immediate effect by simple written notification from the prevailing Party. Gross negligence by the Account Holder is understood to mean: communication of false information; engaging in illegal activity, contravening standards of public decency; money laundering or financing of terrorism; threats to agents of LEMON WAY or the Partner site; defaulted payment; failure to comply with an obligation of this contract; termination of relations between the Account Holder and Partner site; excessive debt or, for legal entities, the nomination of a special mediator and insolvency administrator to initiate rehabilitation or liquidation proceedings. Gross negligence by LEMON WAY is understood to mean: communication of false information; failure to comply with an obligation of these terms and conditions; the nomination of a special mediator and insolvency administrator to initiate rehabilitation or liquidation proceedings.

In the event of a modification to applicable regulations and their interpretation by the relevant regulatory authority that may affect the ability of LEMON WAY or its authorised representatives to carry out payment Transactions, the Framework Agreement will automatically be terminated. The Account Holder may no longer send payment Orders after the effective termination date. The Account may be maintained for a period of 15 months for the purpose of dealing with possible subsequent disputes and complaints. Payment Transactions initiated before the termination date will not be affected by the termination request and must be fulfilled under the terms of the Framework Agreement.

The termination of the Framework Agreement will result in the permanent closure of the Payment Account. The closure of a Payment Account will not give rise to any compensation, regardless of any possible damage caused by said closure. The Account Holder of the Account closed by LEMON WAY is not authorised, unless explicitly authorised by the latter, to open another Payment Account. Any Payment Account opened in violation of this provision may be immediately closed by LEMON WAY, without notice.

According to the Account Holder's instructions, the Provision on the Account Payment subject to closure may be credited to said Account Holder, subject to outstanding payment Transactions and possible receivables, rejected transactions or objections. If a successor is appointed by LEMON WAY, the Account Holder may be encouraged to close their Payment Account and transfer the Provision to a new Payment Account opened with the institution designated as a successor.

LEMON WAY reserves the right to bring legal action to repair the damage suffered due to a breach of the Framework Agreement. The closure of the Payment Account may result in additional fees, within the bounds of article L.313-13 of the Monetary and Financial Code.

20- MODIFICATION OF THE FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT

Any draft amendment to the Framework Agreement shall be communicated in paper or Email or durable form to the Account Holder no later than two (2) months before the date proposed for its entry into force.

If the Account Holder fails to communicate an objection to LEMON WAY by the end of this two (2) month deadline, the former is deemed to have accepted said amendments. If the Account Holder rejects the proposed amendment, they may freely terminate the Framework Agreement, by written request, before said amendment comes into effect. This request does not affect the debits (charges, contributions, payments) owed by the Account Holder.

21- GENERAL INFORMATION

Should administrative formalities be necessary for the fulfilment of these General Terms and Conditions, LEMON WAY and the Account Holder will provide each other with mutual assistance to regulate such formalities.

If one of the non-substantive stipulations of the Terms and Conditions is rendered null and void with regard to an effective rule of law, it will be deemed as not written, but will not invalidate these General Terms and Conditions.

No forbearance by either Party in relying on a breach by the other Party of any of its obligations under these terms and conditions shall be construed as a waiver of the relevant obligation for the future.

In the event of a difficulty in interpretation arising between any of the titles heading the clauses of the General Terms and Conditions, the titles will not be taken into account.

22- APPLICABLE LAW AND COMPETENT JURISDICTIONS

These General Terms and Conditions are governed by French law.

Unless contradicted by a mandatory provision, any dispute relating to their fulfilment, interpretation or validity shall, by default, be brought before the competent courts in Paris.
